

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL THY NEIGHBOR'S MULE

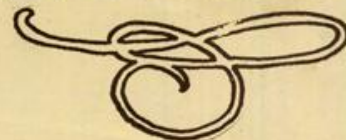

by CLIFF HESS

AS INTRODUCED BY

NORA BAYES

IN

COHAN
REVUE
1918

WATERSON
BERLIN
SNYDER CO.
Music Publishers
Strand Theatre Bldg
Broadway at 47th
NEW YORK

Thou Shalt Not Steal Thy Neighbor's Mule.

By CLIFF HESS.

Moderato

Piano f

Voice

Ev - 'ry-time I look in - to the
When you get up to the Gates of

Till Ready

p

Good Book, It makes me blue;
Heav - en, Don't hes - i - tate;

Ev - 'ry - time I look in - to the Good Book,
Climb the steps un - til you've count - ed sev - en,

Copyright MCMXVIII by Waterson, Berlin & Snyder Co.
Copyright MCMXVIII Canada by Waterson Berlin & Snyder Co.
International Copyright Secured.

I see some-thing new. _____ Of the Ten Com -
Then just stop and wait. _____ If Saint Pet - er

mand - ments, O - ver which I gaze; _____ ans - wers, What's your fav - 'rite hymn? _____

There is one that strikes me, Here is what it says: _____
Dont you dare get ner - vous, Shout out with a vim: _____

Chorus

Thou shalt not steal thy neigh - bors mule; (Get his goat, but not his mule;) That's what they say in Sun-day School.

If you must steal, then well and good - But keep a-way, - from your neigh-bor-hood; - Don't - for - get it, or you will sure - ly regret it. - Do just what oth-ers do to you; (Do 'em first or they'll do you;) That's — an - oth - er Gold - en Rule.

And so if you — are Al - a - bam - a bound, —

Take 'most an - y - thing that's hang - in' round — But thou shalt not steal thy neigh - bor's, I said his mule. — mule. —