

A BOBBED-HAIRED BANDIT
STOLE MY HEART AWAY

MADE IN U.S.A.

by Andrea Razaf
AND Paul Denniker

More People Are Singing and Dancing Because of Bernard-Scheib

BERNARD-SCHIEB
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
1056 BROOKLYN NEW YORK

Pat Studios

A Bobbed-Haired Bandit Stole My Heart Away

By ANDREA RAZAF
and PAUL DENNIKER

Piano

Allegro moderato

f

Till ready

p misterioso

f

Voice

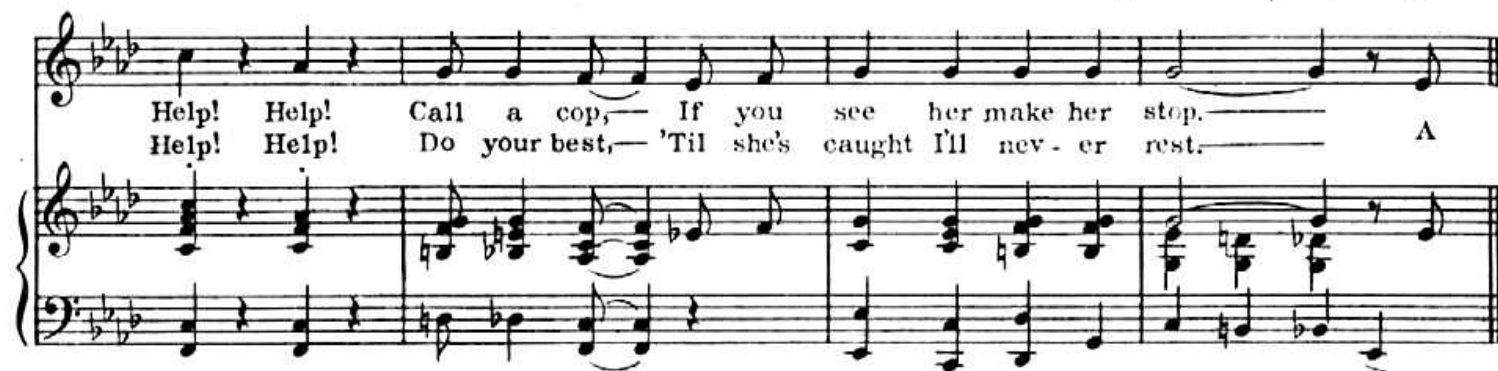

Help! Help! I've been robbed By a girl! A girl! Her hair is bobbed!— Help! Help! Catch the thief, Not a He, A She! Has brought me grief,—

Oh which way did she go? — I'd give the world to know. —
She's hiding 'round some-where, — You'll know her by her hair, —

Help! Help! Call a cop, — If you see her make her stop. — A Help! Help! Do your best, — 'Til she's caught I'll nev-er rest. —

Chorus

Bobbed-haired Bandit held me up to - day — I nev-er thought a p-f girl would act that way, — Now she was - n't in dis - guise, — So she took me by sur - prise — She was armed with just a big pair of flash - ing eyes — I nev - er stopped to lis - ten for com - mands

She smiled at me and I threw up my hands — Then with Did - n't cu - pid's lit - tle dart — She broke the lock that guards my heart — A Bobbed haired Bandit touch my poc - ket - book — I hate to tell you what she took stole my heart a - way. — A - way.