Good-bye bright lights, good-bye white lights,
I've been schem-ing, I've been dream-ing,

I am leav-ing you _____ For the town where I was Dream-ing ev-'ry day _____ Of an old home far a-born, _____ For the fields of wav-ing corn. _____

way _____ And the fields of new mown hay. _____

No great preach-er, no great teach-er has con-vert-ed me; _____
 Its a long time, such a long time since I said good - bye; _____

rall.
 I'm just home-sick, I'm just heart-sick, Lonesome as can be. _____
 Old scenes haunt me, home folks want me, That's the reas-on why: _____

rall.

CHORUS

I'm going to hit the trail, Yes, I'm going to hit the trail That

p-f

leads to sun - ny skies, _____ To hap - py days, to hap - py ways, And moth - er's home - made pies; _____ I know the trail_ will lead to kiss - es, _____ To lov - ing arms and ten - der eyes of brown; _____ Good - bye, I'm on my way, I'll hit the trail to day To my home town. _____ I'm town. _____
