Composer of "Pride of the Nation" March

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of a piano introduction, a vocal line with piano accompaniment, and a concluding piano section. The piano introduction is marked ff. The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "I love you dear in the same old way, But I love my coun-try too; My fa-ther fought in the Civ-il War, In the days of six-ty one;". The piano accompaniment for the vocal line features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The second system of the vocal line includes the lyrics: "I want to fight for the cause of right, 'Neath the Old Red, White and the Blue. My grandsires bled where the streams ran red, When the U. S. A. was young." The piano accompaniment for this system includes dynamic markings sfz, fff, and mp. The final system of the vocal line includes the lyrics: "It's Stars and Stripes now are call-ing me, And I can not choose but go, You must say good bye but you must not cry You're a for- eign shore, And the Huns will howl as our war dogs growl While we". The piano accompaniment for this system includes dynamic markings ff and mp.

CHORUS.

Yan - kee girl you know..... Will you be true to me dear, fight the last world's war.....

When I'm a - cross the sea,..... Chas-ing the Hun while he's on the run, O-ver in Ger - man - y?..... And when the vic-tors come march-ing home, Back to Col - um - bi - a's shore,..... Won't you feel proud if I'm in the crowd, That won the great World War?.....
