Moderato

Have you heard a-bout the luck-y coon
Ev² ry morn he goes out for a walk

Till voice (slow)

Came to town one day in June
With no coons he's seen to talk

He roams a-round
He says he nev-er

thro' the town with an eas-y air He does-n't seem to care no wants to be Mayor or Pres-i - dent Just give him fif - ty cents and mat - ter when or where He dress - es well but don't dress swell But he seems to have the he will be con - tent He nev - er cares 'bout pol - i - ties And he ain't no clubhouse dough And if you get close to that coon You'll hear him mum - bling low.

man And if you want to know his game He'll have you un - der - stand.

rall.

CHORUS.
Moderato.

“ I got a place to eat I got a place to sleep I got a plenty good clothes to

fff

wear I got a hat for my head and shoes for my feet So what more need I care I got a love - ly gal and an hon - est pal And a lot of white friends a - roun' I done bid fare-well to ev-'ry fear I'm the luck-i-est coon in town." "I got a town"
