While wheel - ing down the Av - e - nue the oth - er af - ter - noon A We soon got well ac - quaint - ed and she did - 'nt do a thing But pret - ty girl in bloomers I did spy, Her cheeks were bright and red like the touched me for my diamonds And my mon, I looked for a po - liceman but there ros - es in full bloom She had a mer - ry twin - kle in her eye; I was - n't one in sight And the pret - ty lit - tle scorch - er she was gone; I fol - lowed her a block or two un - til a friend I met I tried to hol - ler mur - der but I could - n't say a word I asked him if he knew the lit - tle peach, With a ver - y know - ing wink he answered act - u - ally be - lieve she stole my speech, While look - ing for my ring I nit well I don't think, Why she's the on - ly peb - ble on the beach.

heard a news - boy sing, Why she's the on - ly peb - ble on the beach.

CHORUS.

Say boys aint she out of sight When you meet her she is up to date, You'll say she is in the push At the mat-i-nee she's al-ways late; For when she mounts her bike she does it handsome

All the oth-er rid-ers she can teach, If you hav-'nt got the price why you don't cut an - y ice, For she's the on - ly peb - ble on the beach.

The only oyster in the stew
Or tin can on the dump,
And many other sayings you well know,
The only beer upon the bar
Is sure to make you jump,
Especially when you havn't got the dough;
The only chicken on the roost
Looks better in a pie,
The nicest fruit is always hard to reach,
Think it over when I'm gone
Have you heard a better one,
Than she's the only pebble on the beach.
