I've got a friend in the kit - chen, who Your lit - tle wife may de - sert you, But helps me a lot when I'm blue. Oh, she sweeps and cooks, not much on looks, but that shouldn't leave you per - plexed. For you know they are just like a car, you she's got the right point of view., I go to the kit - chen when soon will be catch - ing the next. You mar - ry a - gain and your ev - 'ry - thing's wrong. I like her ad - vice, so I'll pass it a - long. troub - le be - gins, You lose your po - si - tion, and wif - ie has twins.

CHORUS

Get yourself a broom and sweep, sweep your troubles a - way, a - Get yourself a broom and sweep, sweep your troubles a - way, a - p-f

way, way, Laugh at "Mis - ter Gloom" and keep, keep a go - in' all Sing a lit - tle tune and work, work will turn in - to day; and say, You'll make mis - takes but you play and say, Don't you get wor - ried if don't have to stop, That is why pen - cils have rub-bers on top, bus - 'ness is slow, The first hun-dred years are the hard-est you know,

Get yourself a broom and sweep, sweep your troubles a - way, stop weep-in',
Get yourself a broom and sweep, sweep your troubles a - way, stop weep-in',

keep sweep-in', Get yourself a broom and sweep, sweep your troubles a - keep sweep-in', Get yourself a broom and sweep, sweep your troubles a -
