

I LIKE THE HAT - I LIKE THE DRESS

AND I LIKE THE GIRL THAT'S IN IT

MELODY BY
S. R. HENRY
LYRIC BY ALFRED BRYAN

PUBLISHED BY
JOS. W. STERN & CO.
102-104 W. 38th ST., NEW YORK

50¹/₄

I Like The Hat, I Like The Dress

and

I Like The Girl That's In It.

Words by ALFRED BRYAN.

Music by
S. R. HENRY.

Moderato.

Vamp.

Third row, left side, chap - pie near the aisle,
Play o'er, stage door, Jack is wait - ing there,

Show girl, right side, throws at him a smile, "I've got her
For his peach - y queen with gol - den hair, But what a num - ber sure" he sighs, "Oh, did you see her roll those change has tak - en place, A bunch of freck - les on her

Copyright MCMXI by Jos. W. Stern & Co.
British Copyright Secured.

English Theatre and Music Hall rights strictly reserved.
Depositado conforme a la ley de Republica Mexicana.

en el año MCMXI por Jos. W. Stern y Cia, Propietarios Nueva York y Mexico.

eyes? I've made a hit with her." "Now wake up Jack," his face, Her golden hair is black. Then Jack says, "I must pal then whispers low, "They all look good when they're go and telephone," He leaves her there with his far away, you know, I guess the dress has caught your friend and hurries home, Well, someone bought her wine all eye," "Now guess again" was Jack's re - ply: - right, But not the one who said that night: -

CHORUS.

"I like the hat, I like the dress, I like- the p p f

lit - tle girl that's in it, I con - fess, She's just a - bout my style you see, I like her gol - den hair,

Like her ro-guish air, Love that ba - by stare. She's got me hipped, She's got me gripped, She's got me

near - ly, near - ly, near - ly off my dip, like the hat, I like the dress, But what I'm af - ter, I con - fess, Is the girl, the girl, the girl-ie that's in the dress." "I like the dress."