I'M ON MY WAY BACK HOME

CARSON J. ROBISON.

Moderato

f

There's the lon-li-est feel - in' hang-in' round me to - day.

mf

In my dreams I've been steal - in' down that old home way,

Where the ros - es are grow - in' round a lit-tle old shack,

That's the place where I'm go - in', some-thing's call - in' me back, I'm

CHORUS

On my way, on my way, Back where I'm long-in' to be

p-f

I can see the whole fam - 'ly wait - in' just to wel-come me

On my way, on my way, where folks don't care a-bout style,

And ev - ry bod - y greets me with a smile _____ When I get back where the moon beams play a - round that cab-in' door — I'll tell the world right now I'll take a vow that nev-er no more I'll stray from my mam - my. On my way, on my way,

There's no place else that I long for, Don't de-lay me,

I'm on my way back home — I'm home.

PATTER

The first thing I do I'm goin' to kiss my mam - my's cheek, The Each morn I'm goin' to watch the gold - en sun come up, I'll sec - ond thing I do I'm goin' to eat for 'bout a week, I milk the brin - dle cow and feed the cream to the pup, I'll feel it com - in' on, I'm goin' to lose my head Cause I'm pull the kit - ten's tail and tease the old red hen, Goin' to

Back to % sure - ly goin' to hide it in a feath - er bed. And I'm throw a - way my shoes and be a kid a - gain.
