

IF I WERE ALADDIN

WORDS BY ROGER LEWIS

MUSIC BY ERNIE ERDMAN

FEATURE SONG HIT WITH VICTOR HERBERT AND GLEN MACDONOUGH'S
Gorgeous Musical Extravaganza

BABES IN TOYLAND

FORSTER MUSIC PUBLISHER INC. CHICAGO.

DULIN

IF I WERE ALADDIN

Words by ROGER LEWIS

Music by ERNIE ERDMAN

Moderato

mf

A man named Al - ad - din had a This man named Al - ad - din lost his won - der - ful lamp, He lived in "Ar - ab - i - an Nights," This won - der - ful lamp, But found it a - gain so they say, If lamp of Al - ad - din could brighten and glad - den And cause ma - ny won - der - ful

I ev - er found it I'd soon be sur - round - ed By some - one like you ev - 'ry

p

sights; ——— If you rubbed the lamp and then made a wish The day; ——— I'd not make a wish on diamonds or gold, Al-wish that you made would come true, ——— So that's why I've wished for that tho' ev-'ry wish would come true, ——— But I'd wish that each girl in this won-der-ful lamp Since I first set my eyes up-on you. ——— won-der-ful world Would be beau-ti-ful dear-ie, like you. ———

CHORUS

Molto Mod^{to}

If I were Al-ad-din, If I were Al-lad-din, And I had that won-der-ful lamp, you'd love me, I'd hold you right in my power, — I'd wish for you ev-'ry hour, — I'd wish you a-way to a beau-ti-ful park, Then I'd rub the lamp a-gain and wish it was dark, Oh how I wish each wish I made were true, I'd make you love me like I want you to, You'd wish for me and

I'd wish for you, If I had that won-der-ful lamp. lamp. —