When first Blink met the girl he loved 'twas on a sum-mer eve They
To make the mat - ter worse for him next night he saw a chap Call At last her pa re - lent - ed, they were mar - ried in the fall Do - When first I saw Miss Swell - a - fair she looked the per - fect peach But sat up - on the so - fa it was al - most time to leave The at the home of La - dy Fair, his face he longed to slap He mes - tic hap - pi - ness was his she was his all in all A good - ness! what a dif - f'rence when I saw her at the beach There was all — that was - n't all — He threw his arms a - bout the Miss — That was - n't all — that was - n't all — For when they met he felt like ice — That was - n't all — that was - n't all — I asked the nurse "Is it a boy" — That was - n't all — that was - n't all — Her ros - y cheeks were red no more — That was - n't all — that was-n't all — He tho't he gave his girl a kiss. — That was-n't all — that was-n't all — He feint-ed once Blink feint-ed twice. — That was-n't all — that was-n't all — For she re - plied in man - ner coy. — "That is - n't all — that was-n't all — The drug-gist moved the day be - fore. — That was-n't all — he near dropped dead — His face turned blue and then turned red — He kissed not all — with ach - ing head — He found him - self bound up in bed — "Do you think he'll
