TILL READY

I'm go - na tell you all a - bout my When war broke out he had a job in Hen - ry Jones That good for noth - en don't know noth - ing la - zy bones, He'd New Or - leans, A liv - in high on wat - er - mel - on pork and beans. He stay out late a spoon - ing with an - oth - er coon, Come home at two and then he'd want to said now Un - cle Sam will nev - er make me fight I'll stay at home, I'll nev - er roam, and sleep till noon My coun - try saved the day they took him a - way, He keep out - a sight, I said now "Hen" your right, he can't make you fight, But wrote a let-ter home from France a week a - go, And he said you bet I hus-tle when the bu - gles blow.

he can take you right up to the fight-ing line, And you can eith-er fight or get a ball in the spine.

CHORUS

I'll change his way of liv-ing when he comes back home, For I've saved up ev'-ry cent and dime I'll buy my-self an ar-my bu-gle and I'm goin' To see that he gets up on time. It was hard to get him up it was hard to get him up, And some times he would sleep till three But when I blow, he'll not be slow, At re-pond-ing to the rev-el - le. You bet I'll le.
