(Rose) I've been told of cer-tain nur-ses Vol-un-teers you (Rose) In a ward a hor-rid doc-tor With his per-fect (Mabel) I am such a tim-id crea-ture Is-nt it a know Who have paved the way for hear-ses in-no-cent-ly ease Told a girl a thing that shocked her in-to heart di-shame I would have to have a teach-er if I played the though

sease
game

But I'll wa-ger
Then he said that Do you fear me

man-y stran-gers
he could cure her gen-tle stran-ger

Ill and woun-ded Tho' her heart was Or my lips of

too
bad
red

Would be glad to
And for noth-ing
Is the red a risk the dan-gers he'd ass-ure her sign of dan-ger

With a nurse like
With some love he Dan-ger just a -

you had head

I won-der if it's true
I'll be 'a doc-tor too
Let's you and I re - hearse

I on - ly wish I knew.
Can I pres-cribe for you.
I want to learn to nurse.

CHORUS

Won't you take a chance
Take a lit - tle chance with lit - tle me If you will

"Ford" to my lit-tle ward I'll nev-er boss you or dou-ble cross you Get a cu-pid dart In your stu-pid heart And my dear you'll see I will nurse you back to life Like a sis-ter Oh mis-ter Won't you take a chance Just a lit-tle chance Won't you please get sick for me. Won't you me.
