

MEXI-TANGO

A NEW DANCE WITH WORDS.

By
W. L.
B
E A R
D
S
L
E
Y

and

D. S.
L I N
D
E M
A N

A NEW DANCE CREATION
by MISS JOAN SAWYER & MR. JOHN JARROTT

Published by TELL TAYLOR New York & Chicago.

MEXI - TANGO.

A New Dance With Words, Invented And Written By

W. L. Beardsley and

David S. Lindeman.

Moderato. Tempo Habanero.

Piano.

Wond - 'rous eyes, on - ly ri - val to the star - litskies, -
Siest - as seem, To - make those an - cient days a dream, -

Haunt me both night and day, -
Dance and song ro - mance and play, -

- That's why I say, - Let us wend our way, To
- Now hold their sway, - Come - lets be gay, In

Refrain.

Mex - i - co, - Sun - ny Mex - i - co, - Where they dance, -

— That new Fan - dan - go, — called the Mex - i - Tan - go, dim.

you know, That's the place that puts style and grace in your man - ner — There's no Ma - ña - na, — You cry en - core, en - core, Then you dance a - gain, To that Span - ish

pp

strain, Get your som-bre - ro, Off to al - a - mo

Come let us all go down to Mex - i - co,

Where they Mex - i - Tan - go, In Mex - i - co.

p