Things that were weird, then, I feared; Ev'ry-thing, to me, was spook-y.

I must con-fess. I pos-sessed quite a sense of fright,

Af-ter I grew, then I knew sup-er-sti-tion was a hoo-doo. 'Cause

I met a phan-tom maid that I learned to love.

When the lights were low,— She drifts to and fro,—

And I know I love her so.

Refrain. Same time as preceding.

Will of the wisp ——— Will you be mine? ——— Each night I see you gleam,

You're like a hap-py dream, You van-ish when I try to hold

you, You taunt me so,

I want to know, Why is it

if you don't want me, Just tell me why do you haunt me? Will of the wisp

I love you so. so.
