I was in my glo - ry When I be - gan - to roam, But I re - al - ize - I was - n't so wise - In leav - ing my home - sweet home. It's the same old sto - ry In spite of the joy— I've known Oh, this is the wish— of a lone - ly roll - ing stone:_____

Refrain p-f

Give me my Mam - - - my no one else will do—p-f

— The ros - es are red— The vi - 'lets are blue— The sug - ar is sweet, but not as sweet as you, Oh mam -

-my I'm com - ing home to you — And swing - ing down the hill You'll hear me whis - tle like the whip - poor - will

I know that you'll be there to meet me, You'll be there to greet me At the old log-cab - in door Smoth - er me with kiss - es, cun-ning ba - by kiss - es Like you did in days of yore I'm com - ing,

Mam - - my shout-ing on my way Mam-my, mam-my give me my mam - - my. Give me my -my. —
