Moderato

PIANO

The piano introduction is written for a grand piano in a 3/4 time signature. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The music features a mix of chords and moving lines in both the treble and bass staves, with dynamic markings such as fz and mf.

VOICE

Girl-ies and boys want pret - ty toys - Cry for them ev - 'ry day
Some oth - er day some - where you may - Play with an - oth - er heart

The first vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef. The lyrics are: "Girl-ies and boys want pret - ty toys - Cry for them ev - 'ry day / Some oth - er day some - where you may - Play with an - oth - er heart". The piano accompaniment continues below, with a dynamic marking of p.

Love something new one day or two - Break it and throw it a - way
But you may feel love that is real - Just when you're drift - ing a - part

The second vocal line continues the melody. The lyrics are: "Love something new one day or two - Break it and throw it a - way / But you may feel love that is real - Just when you're drift - ing a - part". The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support.

You want - ed me - I could - 'nt see - Love would soon de - part And you
One heart that's true cries just for you - Since you \ said good - bye But an -

The third and final vocal line concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "You want - ed me - I could - 'nt see - Love would soon de - part And you / One heart that's true cries just for you - Since you \ said good - bye But an -". The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord.
