In Ha-wai-a 'cross the sea — Hon-o - lu - lu maid-en I am dream-ing of the time — When this hu - la maid-en call-ing me, — I have been hap - py since I met her, Ev-'ry day I — re-ceive a will be mine, For her my heart is al-ways yearn - ing, To her I soon will be re-let - ter, She sent a sweet Ha-wai-an rose to me — Far from o - ver the sea, — I turn - ing, And when I reach that isle a cross the sea — She'll be wait - ing for me, — Our a little slower watch it day by day, And my thoughts all go a - way To where I long to be. — hearts will be in tune 'Neath the big Ha-wai-an moon, That's where I long to be. —
