

My Belgian Rose

WAR EDITION

To Co-operate with the Government and to conserve paper during the War, this song is issued in a smaller size than usual. Save! Save! Save is the watchword today. This is the spirit in which we are working and your co-operation will be very much appreciated.

Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a melodic line with a trill and a grace note, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The key signature has one sharp (F#). The piece concludes with a 'VAMP' section marked 'p' (piano).

Rose of Bel-gium, droop-ing so low, Lift up your head, for we love you so.
Once your rose-buds bloom'd thru the land, Then came the ty - rant with sword in hand.

Robbed of your sun-shine, you're fad - ing a - way, But you'll live to bloom on a Crushed 'neath his foot-steps, you fell to the ground, But still in your heart there is hap-pi-er day. A - mer - i - ca is call - ing to you, Speak-ing in words di-life to be found. A - mer - i - ca will bring back your bloom, Hold - ing you to her vine. — "My home shall be thy home, And all my treas-ures thine?" — breast, — No harm shall be-fall you, And you'll find peace and rest. —
