Moderato

The first system of the score shows the piano introduction. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The music features a series of chords and melodic lines, with dynamic markings such as f and z (accents).

The second system continues the piano introduction. It includes dynamic markings fz and p. A section of the music is marked with a bracket and the word "VAMP".

The third system marks the beginning of the vocal entry. The vocal line starts with a p dynamic. The lyrics are: "Mam-my" songs have been the craze, And "Ba-by" songs have had their days, The Now a days the song that pays Is one that has a catch-y phrase, A

The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line.

The fourth system continues the vocal entry. The lyrics are: Sun-ny South and the Gold-en West were nev-er known to miss, But sim-ple tune that the folks can croon one with a jazz-y swing— And now they write of "Home-sick Blues" of Folks back home who send no news, So I so to prac-tise what I preach I wrote this song and it's a peach while the wrote a lit-tle wan-na go home song, and the chor-us goes like this:— or-ches-tra is play-ing the chor-us let us all join in and sing—

CHORUS

I wan-na go Back to a black lit-tle shack back in Hack-en-sack, New Jer-sey, I wan-na see all the pals and the gals that I used to know, ————— I'll see my ba-by bro-th-er play-ing a-round the kitch-en floor, — I'll hear my moth-er say-ing Come on there, Kid-die, your dad-dy's gon-na be here pret-ty soon twill be June and the moon will be shin-ing down on Jer-sey, —

— Gee! there nev-er was a sweet-er sight to see, — Take it from me, I may be old fashioned and a small town boy, But I know the meaning of the word called "Joy," I'm go-ing back to that black lit-tle shack back in Hack - en-sack, New Jer - sey, and let the world learn how to smile from

me. I wan-na go me.
