DEAR OLD DIXIE.

("When The Flower Of The South Wore The Gray.")

Words by HERBERT H. TAYLOR.

Music by WM. HEAGNEY.

Moderato allegretto.

The musical score is presented in a standard format with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment and a single staff for the vocal line. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is 4/4. The piano part begins with a forte (ff) dynamic and includes various musical notations such as slurs, accents, and dynamic markings. The vocal line includes the lyrics: "There are he - roes who are cov - ered with glo - ry,..... Who in u - ni - forms of blue marched a - Tho' the South be - fore the war is a mem - 'ry,..... There are those who still re - mem - ber the way,..... And they're men - tioned now in song and in sto - ry,..... Loy - al day Gal - lant swords were drawn in hon - or of Dix - ie,..... When the (DIXIE.)". The score concludes with a final piano accompaniment flourish.

sons whom we cher - ish to - day;..... There are names we love in Dix - ie just as flower of the South wore the gray;..... And we're proud of the old South and all its dear - ly,..... And we're proud of their part in the fray,..... So while cheering for the glo - ries,..... And we're proud of the new South to - day, But we'll tell with pride our blue who are march - ing,..... Don't for - get there were he - roes in gray,..... chil - dren the sto - ries,..... Of the he - roes who fought 'neath the gray,.....
