I've al-ways lived a peace-ful life, I nev-er look for fight, I ev-en stood for It's not so ver-y long a-go, the land-lords ad-ver-tised, "Six rooms and bath for tax and pro-hib-i-tion, But now I'm get-ting peev-ish and I'll bat-tle for my on-ly twen-ty dol-lars;" But now-a-days to pay the rent they've boost-ed to the rights, The hold-up men have changed my dis-po-si-tion; The burg-lars leave you skies; You have to go with-out clean shirts and col-lars; In-to this world with-some-thing when they call, But the ban-dits I mean have no heart at all: out a cent you came, And the land-lords see that you go out the same:

The musical score is written for piano and voice. The piano part is in 2/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. It features a steady accompaniment of chords and moving lines in both hands. The voice part is a single melodic line with lyrics. The lyrics are arranged in lines corresponding to the musical phrases. The score includes dynamic markings such as 'f' (forte) and 'p' (piano). The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The score concludes with a final chord in the piano part.
