FROM BROADWAY DOWN TO CONEY ISLE

By HARRY YEAGER

Lively

When you're Now the off from Broadway down to Co-ney Isle _____ You rub-ber while _____ you ride in surf is just su - blime at Co-ney Isle _____ The waves are high _____ your girls so style _____ On a rub-ber wa - gon when you've gone a mile _____ You count your shy _____ In your bathing suits you prom - e - nade the sand _____ You hold her pile _____ you sim-ply smile _____ Then af - ter you have hand _____ she looks so grand _____ You then go 'round and twice?

passed the Brooklyn Bridge your neighbor talks and you begin to quiz her all a - 'round the rocky coast - er if she's frightened then you hug her closer dit - to<sup>c</sup> bout her O - hi - o home Why did she roam if she's a - lone Then same thing Now shoot the shutes My what a dash one scream a splash, She while your ride - ing thro old Prospect Park you see the seat you'd faints and falls in - to your arms you hold her that's your cue to like to sit and spark we're on the speedway pard, drive the rubber wagon hard Now we're get a little bold - er faint - ed dead a - way, she can hear you when you say Din - ner
