whirled and twirled, The jazzy song has had its day, The critics say it's now passé

f

It's been sur - passed, It's been out - classed; It's fad - ing fast, at last.

Spoken ad lib

Good - bye Blues (You made us once so merry) Good - bye Blues (here's your o-bit-u-n-ry)

Tos - tis Good - bye Is now appropri-ate For you are out of date, All your bars (and we could not resist them) sure were jars (to our old nervous system) No more we'll hear those jazzy blues we loved so well, They're thru good-bye good-bye Good - bye for halts (of the old syn-co-pat-ed thing) Made us en - thus (those good old blues) No more you'll hear (pounding and sounding in your ear) Those blues so queer (so queer) Oh Dear; (oh dear) It's

Rags and blues have met their doom. Good-bye for-ev-er, Now we'll place them in a tomb, And tho' they made us dance and laugh, We'll have to write their ep-i-taph,

You're goin' a-way, You're goin' to stay, Good-bye Blues Good-bye.
