Moderato

The first system of the piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and moving lines, while the left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'.

The second system of the piano introduction continues the musical theme. It includes dynamic markings such as sfz (sforzando) and p (piano), and a tempo change to slowly. A section is marked Vamp (till ready).

VOICE (con espress.)

The first system of the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a single staff with lyrics underneath. The piano accompaniment is in two staves. The lyrics are: "One lit - tle girl was missed by all her friends at play — So they came So days and days went by and still she stayed at home — Al-though her". The piano part is marked p (con espress.).

The second system of the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "troop - ing to her home, — They called and called her in their child - ish mates called her each day, — She would not leave her moth - er there a -".

The final system of the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "way lone But she shook her head, and sad - ly she said: 'I'm not com - ing out to - day. — When for her they'd call, she'd an - swer them all: 'My dad's still a - cross the foam. —".
