Jones was Brown-ie's pal, and he'd been wed for fif - teen years He bring us back to days when we had bach - e - lor de - lights Take heard the news, said "quit your blues, it's time to shout three cheers?"

this from me, for I can see some hist - 'ry mak - ing nights?"

CHORUS
Play Slow

If your wife wants to go to the coun - try, — Let her go, let her go, let her go. — Send her off to - day, pay her fare one way To the dear old farm, She'll be safe from harm Now you know that you need a va - ca - tion— Let her go, let her go, let her go, 'Cause I'm with you, I'll send mine too, Let her go, let her go, let her go. If your go.
