

I'D LIKE TO FIND THE FELLOW WHO STOLE MY GAL

by LEO WOOD
The Writer of, "SOMEBODY STOLE MY GAL."

M. H. Hibborn

Get the Number for your Phonograph
Record Player

JACK MILLS INC.
Music Publishers
Jack Mills Building
400-150 W. 46th St., New York

Barbelle

"I'd Like To Find The Fellow Who Stole My Gal"

Words and Music
by LEO WOOD

Writer of "Somebody Stole My Gal"

Moderato

ff

Vamp

mf

I've searched ev - 'ry - where, For the fel - low who stole - my gal, I'd just like to know The rea - son why she went - a - way,

mp

Looked both here and there, But I can't find a sign - of that old gal of mine -
It sure was some blow To find out she was thru and had gone a-way too -

No-bod-y knows how I miss her, And wish that she would come back to me:-
 May-be I'll get a chance some day, To find out why, she let me go by.-

CHORUS Slowly with much expression
 I'd like to find the fel-low who stole my gal, And if I find the two of them to-geth-er, I'll sim-ply ask her whether she knows that

I Have al-ways loved her just the same.- And that I'll

No-bod-y knows how I miss her, And wish that she would come back to me:-
 May-be I'll get a chance some day, To find out why, she let me go by.-

CHORUS Slowly with much expression

I'd like to find the fel-low who stole my gal, And if I

find the two of them to-geth-er, I'll sim-ply ask her whether she knows that

I Have al-ways loved her just the same.- And that I'll