Moderato.

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, key of B-flat major. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The first system shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a piano (p) dynamic. The piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings of fz, pp Mysteriously, R. H., fz, and p Solemnly. The piano part features a variety of textures, including chords and melodic lines.

It was on one storm-y
Af-ter play-ing rag-gy

The second system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line includes a ten. (tenuto) marking. The piano accompaniment also includes a ten. marking. The piano part continues with chords and melodic lines.

winter's night when Sam Green pass'd a way — And he reached the golden gate the mel-o-dies from "Blues" to Will-iam Tell — I saw ev'-ry body run to ten.

ver - y next morn Then he heard St. Pet - er say the gold - en gate And I heard some bo - dy yell

Tell me the place from whence you came Your oc - cu - pa - tion
 O - pen the door and let me in And there stood No - ah and your name 'Cause all 'round here are do - ing the same When with a grin He said I hope I have missed no fun And

Sam Green said to Pete I play pi - an - o with both hands and feet Then then the dance be - gun He grabb'd an an - gel by her gold - en wings Then old St. Pet - er loud - ly cried Come right on in, we'll have a dance in - side.

No. ah's wife let out a roar and run poor No. ah's chick - en off the floor.

CHORUS.

Now there was old St. Pet - er danc - ing to the met - er of a
