Moderato.

Piano.

Till Ready. Very Slowly.

Down at the dan - cing hall The
When I hear mu - sic sweet, I'd fan - cy folks, one_ and all as - sem - ble and give_ a ball On just rath - er dance than eat, And al - ways my bus - y feet Keep

Sat - ur - day night; Such dusk - y belles are there, Can't time to the drum; Start kind o' la - - zy - like, But

(Spoken.)

e - qual them an - y - where! Um - um! love - ly sight!
get kind o' cra - zy - like, Um - um! go - ing some!

Nev - er you saw be - fore Such dan - cing as on that floor, And Feel way up in the air, With nev - er a woe or care, And I'll tell you what is more, With out an - y brag:—

go on a dan - cing tear, A sort of a jag.—

On - ly my girl_ and me Are all that you want_ to see A - 'Spect that my girl_ and me Will dance thro' e - ter - ni - ty, Still dan - cing that new_ temp - ta - tion rag.

do - ing that new_ temp - ta - tion rag.

CHORUS. Slowly and Raggy.

Sway - ing, with the mu - sic sweet - ly play - ing,

mp-f

All the time_ I'm gaz - ing in bright eyes

Full of real de - vo - tion, While show - ing po - e - try_ of mo - tion;

Say, kid, Ain't it great to dance this way, kid?

It's got me_ a - go - ing, I'm hap - py! tick - les me_ to death,

This temp - ta - - tion rag! rag!
