ELSIE JANIS

in
"T'WAS EVER THUS."
A delightful photo
comedy of the art of love making from the prehistoric down to the present day, will be presented by Bosworth Incorporated, at the Royal Theatre beginning Wed.
Sept. 22.

Elsie Janis impersonates three entirely different girls, a bare limbed belle of the Cave Dweller epoch, a refined daughter of the Boston aristocracy of 1865 and an up to the minute
New York novelist of the present day. Her athletic vigor as the first, her grace with the difficult crinoline as the second, and her style and charm as the third prove an infinite variety and delight to this extra-moneys worth program.

Wed., Thurs., Fri., Sat.
Sept. 29, 30. Oct. 1, 2.

DONALD BRIAN

"THE VOICE IN THE FOG."

In "The Voice in the Fog," Donald Brian, the distinguished theatrical star, will make his motion picture debut for the Jesse L. Lasky Company.

In this photodramatization of Harold Mac-Grath's famous novel, Mr. Brian is seen as a young haberdasher clerk who falls heir to a title, the family jewel and a small sum of money.
How he loses his title
and money and the adventures he goes through in America, are thrillingly told in this splendid production.

In the cast supporting Mr. Brian, are such well-known artists as Adda Gleason, Frank Connor, George Geb-hardt, Ernest Joy, Florence Smythe, and other members of the Lasky
all-star stock company.
