Piano.

The skies were blue, her eyes were too, Her heart was The hours fly, the days go by, Wittear-dimmed true as he kissed her "Good bye"— He whis-pered Dear wait for me eye the maid waits for her boy— What's that she hears? the mail ap-here, And brush that tear a-way, and dry your eye— Soon on your hand—pears, She reads through tears a note that brings her joy!— Soon I'll be home—

I'll place a gold-en band,— And take you to "Hon-ey moon Land" to you a-cross the foam,— Then down Lov-er's Lane— we will roam!
