

HOUSTON BLUES

3

Words and Music by GEO. W. THOMAS
Writer of: "New Orleans Hop Scop Blues," "Muscle Shoals Blues"

Allegretto

Piano

Voice slow

I can stay right here and real-ly look a thou-sand miles a-Oh my mind's on Hous-ton New Or-leans and Mem-phus Ten-ne-way, _____ I can stay right here and see, _____ Oh my mind's on Hous - ton real-ly look a thou-sand miles a - way, _____ Oh my New Or-leans and Mem-phus Ten - ne - see, _____ But there's

Band and orchestrations ready

Copyright MCMXXII by Geo. W. Thomas Published by Geo. W. Thomas & Co., 428 Bowen Ave., Chicago, Ill.
International Copyright Secured All Rights Reserved mind is on some - one and I just can - not say some - one here I know thinks a lot of poor me

tr
 um, Oh I have a lone - some feel - ing um, I can hear that trom - bone moan - in'

tr
 Um I wish that I could do some squeel - ing, I've been to Hous - ton and Um I hear some - thing else a groan - in', Old Hous - ton town is the most ev - 'ry where but there's some - thing in Hous - ton calls me back there I must town that I like I will stay here a while but I'm sure go - ing back Got the leave this old town just be - fore the eve-ning sun goes down.

blues for my home and I can't stay a - way ve - ry long.

Chorus slow

The Hous-ton girls The Hous-ton girls they have a dance down there they dance in a whirl,

They dress so neat they sure look sweet it takes you all your time to real-ly com-pete

Down at the hall Where they give balls they have a jazz-band play-in' jazz of jazz that's all

That's all you'll hear long as you're there I've got the long lost Hous-ton Blues. Blues.

1 2

Fine