

THOUGH WE'RE MILES AND MILES APART

Adapted from the
"NO NAME WALTZ"

Lyric by
J. Russel Robinson.

Melody by W. C. Handy and
Chas. N. Hillman

Published by Pace and Handy Music Co. Inc.

1545 Broadway, New York

Though We're Miles And Miles Apart

(Adapted from the No Name Waltz)

Lyric by
J. RUSSEL ROBINSON

Melody by
CHAS. N. HILLMAN
& W.C. HANDY

Andante
(tremolo both hands ad lib.)

Presto

L.H. (use soft and loud pedal together)

pp ppp pp

rit.

♩

§

§

Tempo di Valse

p rubato

Voice (tenderly.)

When my thro'ts go
With the sink - ing

legato

mp con espress.

roam - ing dear, Home - ward in the gloam - ing,
sun, dear, Dream - ing of the one, dear,

There I sit and dream, dear, Where the can - dles
How the tears are fall - ing, When your voice comes gleam, dear, Now the tho't comes steal - ing, call - ing, And a mess - age speed - ing,

Ten - der - ly ap - peal - ing, Tho' the seas di - Dis - tance nev - er heed - ing, To the heart of vide us, loved one,

me seems say - ing,

O'er the deep blue o - cean I send love's de - Tho' you are the dear - est When you are the vo near tion, Ask - ing you to wait, my near est, Ab - sence has en - chanted ment sweet _____ heart, _____ Some thing seems to too, _____ dear, _____ And I'm glad I cheer me, Tell ing me you hear me, met you, Glad I can't for get you,

Tho' we're miles and miles a part. _____
 Tho' we're miles and miles a part. _____

dim. D.S.