RAG-TIME LIZ.

SONG and REFRAIN.

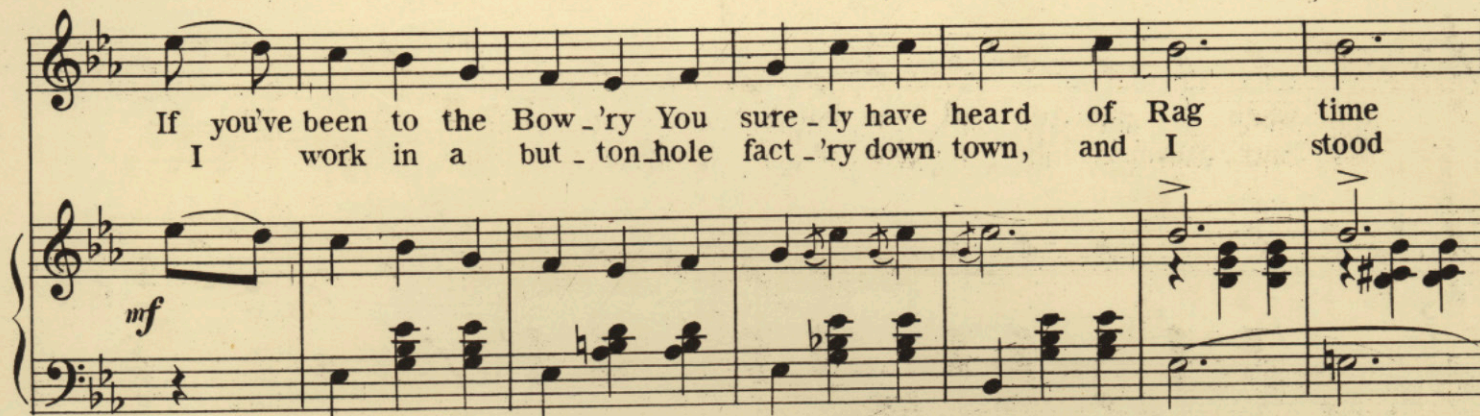

Words by RICHARD CARLE.

Music by ALFRED E. AARONS.

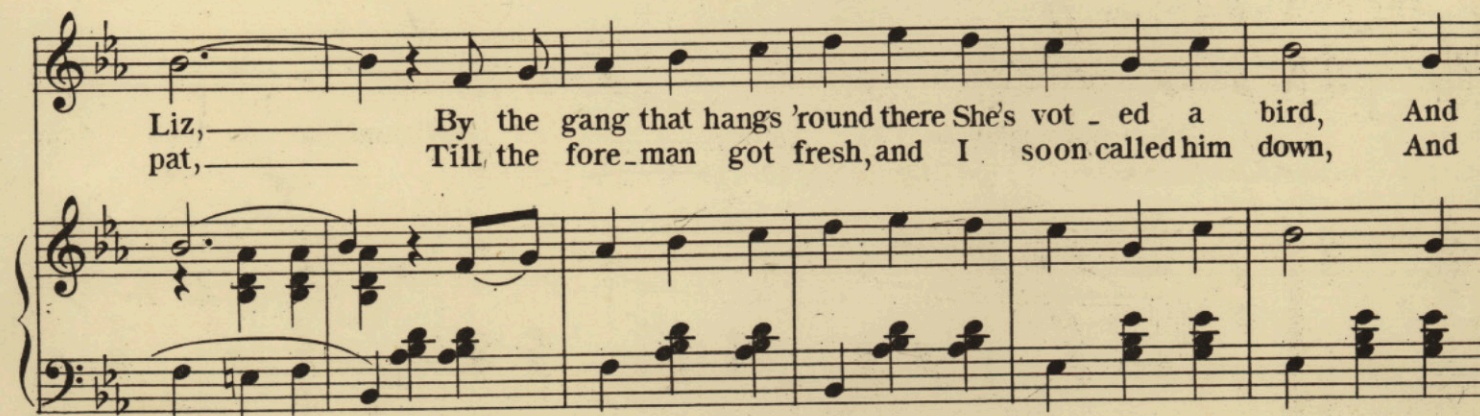

Tempo di Valse.

If you've been to the Bow-ry You sure-ly have heard of Rag - time
I work in a but - ton-hole fact -'ry down town, and I stood

Liz, By the gang that hangs 'round there She's vot - ed a bird, And pat, Till the fore-man got fresh, and I soon called him down, And hon - est that's just what she is. Just as stuck as the rest, It's a left the whole bunch of them flat. Ev - er since then this fore-man hangs cinch you would be, if this gal you'd see, ——— Do'nt think its a 'round me, you know, each place I go, ——— He says to me

"Con" when I put you all on, that the Queen of the Bow - 'ry is me! ———
 "Liz, sure you must be a "Wiz" or I could - nt be stuck on you so! ———

REFRAIN. p 2nd Time. ff

I am the Bow - 'ry Belle, ——— Rigged up in togs dead

p 2nd Time. ff

swell. ——— All of the speel - ers, boun_cers or heal - ers,

Think I'm the re - al thing, (Wot tell spoken) Each one who sees my phiz, _____ . Wish - es that I was his, _____

_____ Ev - e - ry bloke on the block tips his sky piece to

Rag - time Liz. _____ Liz. _____
