

Also sung with Great Success by DeHAVEN & MAI.

ENGLISH
COPYRIGHT & PERFORMING RIGHT
DECLARED & RESERVED.

INTRODUCED BY MISS ATTIE SPENGER.

WITMARK
PUBLISHED
BY LITTON & SONS

ROM-BA-SHAY

COON
SONG AND REFRAIN

By MAX
HOFFMAN.

5

PUBLISHED BY

M. WITMARK & SONS.

CHAS. BISHOP & CO. LONDON, ENGL. — WHOLEY, RYCE & CO. TORONTO, CAN.
Copyrighted for Joseph Bennett & Son, British Columbia & Vancouver

BOM-BA-SHAY.

MAX HOFFMANN.

INTRO.

Moderato.

1 To-gether for a fro-lic we're as-sem-bled, As jol-ly boys and girls to pass an
 2 So let's for-get our trou-bles and our sor-rows, Cheer up and have a jol-ly good old even-ing gay Of by-gone days it does so much re-sem-ble, Let's time in-stead, For there's no tell-ing where we'll be to-mor-row, And have the reg-lar dance called Bom-Ba-Shay. ah, ah, ah!

 when we die we'll be a long time dead. ah, ah, ah!

CHORUS.

Salute your part-ners all hands round with a ha, ha, ha, ha,

Ev - 'ry bod - y wheel and do the possum a la,

All you lit-tle coons so gay and cute bal-ance all and come a down the chute while doing a reg - lar ho - na - lu - la dance, ah, ah, ah.

Ev - 'ry bod - y bow and do the bum - ba - sha,

Gents please take each la - dy for a prom - e - nade,

Jump right a - round and do the lat - est run, Kill your - selves but just in fun, While doing the reg - lar dance call'd Bom Ba Shay.