Voice.

Down in Ten-nes-see, grows the goof-er tree,
Ev'-ry one of us, needs this goof-er dust,

Vamp.

And this goof-er tree, is a mys-te-ry. Un-der-neath it's trunk'bout ev'-ry 'Cause in goof-er dust, you can place your trust. People have been known to come from once a year, You'll find a queer pe - cu - liar root a - growing there. miles a-round. And start a dig-ging for this root that's in the ground.

Take this root, they say, Grind it right a-way, To a pow-der form, Su - per - sti - tious-ly, I don't mean to be, But this root you see,

And don't dare de-lay; Keep a lit - tle in your pock-et, Put a lit-tle in your shoes, Then Just ap-peal to me; An - y time you see me talk-ing, To a part-y that looks nice, you can han - dle an - y - bod - y an - y way you choose.

I won't on - ly sprin - kle once, but I will sprin - kle twice.

CHORUS

If there's one you love and they ain't lov - ing you,

p-f

Sprin-kle lit - tle goof-er dust, Sprin-kle 'lit - tle goof-er dust,

If your sweet - heart gives you the sack — Just sprin-kle lit - tle goof-er dust and shell come run - ning back.

When you're sad and lone - ly,

And if you're feel-ing blue, here's what you've got to do,

Sprin-kle 'lit - tle goof-er, a lit - tle bit of goof-er that's all. If there's
