

THE LADY SLAVEY

WORDS BY HUGH MORTON

MUSIC BY GUSTAVE KERKER.

Baby, Baby	40
The Beautiful Human Fly	40
Cachuca Song	40
Golf Song	40
Nellie Kept on Smiling	40
Twinkle, Twinkle	40
Whoop! De Dooden Do	40
The Harmless little Girl	40
Come down Ma Honey Do	40

AS PRODUCED BY
CANARY AND LEDERER
AT THE N.Y. CASINO.

NEW YORK
PUBLISHED BY T.B. HARMS & CO. 18 EAST 22ND ST.
LONDON
FRANCIS, DAY & HUNTER, 142, Charing Cross Road.

WHOOOP - DE - DOO - DEN - DO!

Words by Hugh Morton.

Music by Gustave Kerker.

1. There once was a maid named Peg-gie Brown, Whoop - de-doo-den -
 2. Now Peg-gy went, of course, on the stage, Whoop - de-doo-den -

- do! And she was the fair - est maid in town, Whoop-de-doo-den -
 - do! And soon sweet Peg-gy be-came the rage, Whoop-de-doo-den -

- do! Her eyes were blue her cheeks were fair, She'd a love-ly crop of
- do! She could-n't sing, she could-n't dance, But none of her ri-vals rit.

golden hair, And she wore her dress cut down to there, Whoop-de-doo-den-do!
had a chance When she acted a boy, in little knee pants, Whoop-de-doo-den-do!

rit. ff a tempo

mf
Whoop-de-doo-den, Whoop-de-doo-den! Peg-gy knew a thing or two; When Whoop-de-doo-den, Whoop-de-doo-den! Peg-gy's tights were pal-est blue; High peo - ple sighed, She sim - ply cried, Whoop-de-doo-den-do!

 art she missed, But you couldn't re-sist her Whoop-de-doo-den-do!

Whoop - de-doo-den, Whoop - de-doo-den! Peg - gy knew a thing or two; When Whoop - de-doo-den, Whoop - de-doo-den! Peg - gy's tights were pal - est blue; High peo - ple sighed, She sim - ply cried, Whoop-de-doo-den-do! -do!

 art she missed, But you couldn't re-sist her Whoop-de-doo-den-do! -do!