MISS VIRGINIA.

By JEFFERSON & IRVING.

Arr. by WM. POLLA.

Intro.

The introduction consists of two staves of piano music. The right hand starts with a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line. The piece begins with a forte (f) dynamic and transitions to piano (p) after four measures.

2. She's got dia - monds to lose, she has

Till ready.

The first system shows the vocal melody on a single staff and the piano accompaniment on a grand staff. The lyrics are: "1. Done heard a lot 'bout some" and "2. She's got dia - monds to lose, she has". The piano accompaniment features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes.

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "hot coons in town, But I guess a - bout de warm - est in de lot" and "all kinds of clothes. She's a hum - mer that has made the dark - ies talk,". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern.
