Allegro moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked Allegro moderato. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands. The vocal line enters in the second system with the lyrics: "While the shells were fly - ing ov - er in An - y-time the dough-boys need-ed a". The piano part includes dynamic markings p and mf. The vocal line continues with: "France, — A good and val - iant Knight — was al - ways in the fight, — friend, — You'd find old Cas ey near — the fight - er's heart to cheer, —". The piano part continues with a steady accompaniment. The vocal line then sings: "Tho' he nev - er car - ried a shield or lance, — He was there do - ing his share just for the He stuck with the boys till the ver - y end, — Faced the foe, all of us know with - out a". The piano part continues with a consistent accompaniment. The vocal line concludes with: "right, — He wore the 'K. of C.' — and he's known to you and me, as, fear, — So cheer and make it ring — and a chor - us let us sing, to,". The piano part concludes with a final chord.
