John Bull tells, in de ole cows hum,
 How Uncle Sam used Uncle Tom,
 While he makes some white slaves at home,
 By "Pop goes de Weasel!"
 He talks about a friendly trip
 To Cuba in a steam war-ship,
 But Uncle Sam may make him skip
 By "Pop goes de Weasel!"
 He's sending forth his iron hounds
 To bark us off de fishin'-grounds—
 He'd best beware of Freedom's sounds
 Ob "Pop goes de Weasel!"

 But de best World's Fair am when our girls

 Den form two lines as straight as a string,
 Dance in and out, den three in a ring—

My wife she is very sick,
 The baby's got the measles,
 Sally's got the whooping cough,
 Pop goes the Weasel.
 Forward two and balansay,
 Cross hand with Sally Teazle,
 Oh gracious what a time I had
 Singing pop goes the Weasel.
 All around the Cobblers house,
 The Monkey chased the people,
 The Minister kiss'd the Deacons wife,
 Pop went the Weasel.
