

ALEXANDER'S JAZZ BAND

(NOVELTY SONG)

WORDS BY MONTY C. BRICE
MUSIC BY

WALTER DONALDSON

WRITER of "I've The Sweetest Girl In Maryland,"
"Suki Son (Where The Cherry Blossoms Fall)" Etc. Etc.

DEK N. 9

M. WITMARK & SONS

NEW YORK · CHICAGO · PHILADELPHIA · BOSTON · SAN FRANCISCO · LONDON

Alexander's Jazz Band

Lyric by
MONTY C. BRICE

Music by
WALTER DONALDSON

Brightly

Of course you know that years a-
And when they play, you start to go, A-lex-an-der's Rag-time Band Was known through-out the land For play-ing away, 'Cause you simply can't keep still; It gives you such a thrill, - It makes you rag-gy mu-sic grand. They're right in town, Come on a-round, - He's taught the boys all some-thing dance a-against your will You ought to get the clar-in-et - And the trom-bone when they new, New kind of mel-o-dies; New kind of har-mon-ies; Sure to make a hit with you. 'Cause moun, Then Al-ex-an-der starts, Fills in the mi-nor parts, Play-ing on his sax-o- pho-ne.

REFRAIN

Mis-ter Al-ex-an-der has a Jazz Band, You ought to go and hear them play; — I've nev-er heard of an-y mu-sic as grand, The mel-o-dies he has will fill you full of jazz. Just take your girl and dance her to the jazz band, And you are bound to win her hand, — And when he gets you out up-on the Ball Room floor, You'll be do-ing steps you nev-er did be-fore,

There is noth-ing grand-er than Mis-ter Al-ex-an-der and his brand new Jas-bo Band. Band.