Ragtime Arabian Nights.

Words by HAROLD ATTERIDGE.

Music by
S. A. ROMBERG.

Moderato

Down at the hall there are colored lights, There is a ball called A - ra - bian Nights, Bright in the night ev - 'ry lamp now gleams, Just like the night of a thousand dreams,

 float a way, where sweet Ro - mance dreams

Chorus

Let me be, Let me be,

p-f

In those old A - ra - bian Nights of long a - go.

Let me see, Let me see,

all those lit - tle ha - rems with the lights turned low.

That for me, that for me;

with a hun - dred sweet-hearts sit - ting in a row, Sit a - round and smoke with a pipe or — two;

With no of - fice work that you have — to do, Wine and Wo - men mu - sic and lights, In those Rag-time A - ra - bi - an Nights. Nights.
