

The Song our Soldiers Sing as They March Along

⌘ KEEP THE LOVE-LIGHT SHINING ⌘

==== IN THE WINDOW ====

Words and Music by Caddigan and McHugh

Published by JOS. W. STERN & CO. NEW YORK
SOLE AGENTS
LONDON

Keep The Lovelight Shining In The Window

INTROD.

CADDIGAN and McHUGH

Tempo di marcia

PIANO

Vamp

As the sha - dows fall there's a bu - gle call, mar - tial
When the war is done ev - ry moth - ers son will come mu - sic fills the air ————— There's the tramp of feet on the cit - y march - ing home a - gain ————— With their flag un - furled show - ing all the street sol - dier boys are ev - ry - where ————— There's a tear dimmed eye, there's a world that they la - bored not in vain ————— Then the hearts that crave for the mo - ther's sigh, there's a sweet - heart's fond good - bye ————— As they march a - sons they gave to the free - dom of the sea ————— They will bless the Copyright, 1917, by D. W. Cooper, Boston, Mass.

way to face the fray to dare to do to die day the U. S. A. fought for that li - ber - ty

Chorus

Keep the love-light shining in the win - dow 'til the boys come march - ing home

Your heart may grieve for those who leave, On the bat - tle fields to roam There's a ray of sun - shine gleam - ing thro' the dark - est clouds of war, So keep the love - light shin - ing in the win - dow for the boy you're wait - ing for Keep the for