

HERE COMES MY TRAIN, DING DONG, TOOT TOOT, FAREWELL, SO LONG

I'M GOING BACK TO CAROLINA

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
BILLY DOWNS
AND
ERNIE ERDMAN

SOPHIE TUCKER

I'm Going Back To Carolina

Words and Music by
BILLY DOWNS and ERNIE ERDMAN

Marcia

p

1. Don't
2. I'm

Till Voice

ask me why I'm leav - ing, You see that I'm not griev - ing, I'm glad that I'm re turn - ing, For years I have been yearn - ing, To real - ly feel - ing grand. _____ I'm wait - ing for the see my home a - gain. _____ I seem to hear the train dear, that takes me back a - gain dear, To sweet old Dix - ie cri - ckets a chirp - ing in the thick - ets Way down in lo - ver's land, _____ I'm thru with all the bright lights, The lane, _____ It makes me feel like yel - ling, Ma's

p

Ca - fe's and the white lights, The hur - ly bur - ly noise of old Broad - home-made pies I'm smell - ing, Oh gee, I'm just as hap - py as can rall.

way _____ I'll hear that en - gine puf - fing, Be - be _____ I'll feel a grand sen - sa - tion When a tempo

lieve me I'm not bluffing, good bye, I'm on my way.
I see my home sta-tion, I'm on my way, fare thee

a tempo

CHORUS

p - f

I'm go-ing back, back, back to Car-o - li - - na

p - f

That's where I be - long ——— I'm go - ing back, back, back, — to Car - o - li - na, And join the Dix - ie through, come a - long come a - long I know the folks will all — be glad to ad lib

see me Just for Auld Lang Syne —

— Here comes my train, ding, dong, — Toot-toot, Fare-well, so long — I'm go - ing back to Car - o - lin'. I'm go - ing lin', —

1 2 last