long For - ev - er we will hear the same old song The minstrel sang in dear old Ro-man-ic say There'll nev-er be a bright-er sweet-er day The day that I am ev-er long-ing for Fair - er than his sing-ing to me and where my heart has ev - er Sal - ly in my arms once a - gain to hold her there un-til she yearned to be With pret - ty Sal - ly neath the wil-low tree So tells me when The preach-er makes us one for - ev - er - more So

Chorus

Take me back to Spoon-ey Hol-low down in dear old sug-ar lane Where old Mis-ter Frog-a-bol-la sing his sweet re - frain — Let the moon smile down on me and Sal some sweet dream of a gal Come on you snook-ums let me see you once a - gain I'll say so Pic - ture me and Sal-ly in a cot-tage built for two — With the morn-ing glories twin ing round the door And then some more The on-ly real good thing you have round here is the train that leaves to go down there, So take — me back to Spooney Hol-low there I will re - main. -main.
