The musical score is written for piano and voice. It features a piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part begins with a series of chords and moving lines in both hands. The vocal line enters with the lyrics 'Good morn - in' Judge, I'm here a - gain_ be - fore you and the A nice pot roast - is good and sweet, pork chops and steaks I'. The piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings such as 'f' (forte) and 'p' (piano), and performance instructions like 'Till ready' and 'precitativo'. The lyrics continue with a humorous monologue about a juror's decision to eat meat, and the piano accompaniment provides harmonic support throughout.

she's my law-ful wed-ded wife that's true, — But how'd you like your wife to hand to you: — lieve me mar-ried life ain't al-ways bliss, — Now judge you'd quit if all you got was this: — rall. rall assai.

Chorus

Beans for your break-fast, beans for your lunch Beans at sup-per time, —

p-f

Boiled beans, soup beans, stewed beans, Baked beans, beans rain or shine, — She nev-er has ham, — chick-en or lamb, — strange as it seems, — My home I ad-mired, Judge, but I got tired — of eat-in' beans, beans, beans. — beans. —
