The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with quarter notes. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C).

In South A - mer - i - ca one day,
In North A - mer - i - ca to - day,

The first line of lyrics is set to a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand.

A nois - y monk - ey band was play - ing mus - ic grand;
When - e'er you hear a band that's play - ing mus - ic grand;

The second line of lyrics continues the melody. The piano accompaniment includes a prominent bass line and chords in the right hand.

The tune that they be - gan to play,
The tune that they be - gin to play,

The third line of lyrics concludes the phrase. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

Was called the Rag - O' Tang, with it the jun - gle rang.
So full o' biff and bang, is called the Rag - O' Tang.

Some tourists heard their play - ing, They could - n't stop their sway - ing,
You need - n't leave your home to, You nev - er have to roam to,

When they got home they told their friends, A - bout the play - ing,
Be en - ter - tained, your pho - no - graph, Will start to play it,

A - bout the sway - ing, Now ev - 'ry - bo - dy is
And make you sway it, You'll find your wife and child

CHORUS

Danc - ing the Rag - O' Tang, Danc - ing the Rag - O' Tang,

It's cap - tured all so - ci - e - ty;

Now ev - ry - bo - dy knows just how the mus - ic goes,

It's oh, so snap - py, it makes 'em hap - py,

No - bo - dy's wor - ried 'bout the bear,

You see them danc - - ing ev - 'ry - where, They're do - ing it all the while, do - ing it with a smile,

Danc - ing the Rag - O' Tang. ——— Tang. ———
