Moderato

I
We

had a dog, named Fi - do, That I liked ve - ry much, I nev - er had a bur - glar, They would - n't take a chance, 'Cause used to spend all my dough, For pup - py cakes and such; Our they know lit - tle Fi - do Would hang on to their pants; I fam - 'ly learned to love him, To our hearts he was en - deared, But used to love bo - log - na, 'Twas the on - ly meat I'd get, But now they're gone in mourn - ing, 'Cause poor Fi - do's dis - ap - peared.

now I can - not eat it, It re - minds me of my pet.

CHORUS

But I won't look all ov - er, the way they did for Rov - er, 'Cause

I know just where lit - tle Fi - do's gone, (Poor dog!) He's in a place be - low, where all the naugh - ty dog - gies go, — Down, down, down, where there is - n't an - y snow. Tho' his hair was short, and his tail was long, I miss the lit - tle de - vil some - how, bow - wow, But He's he won't get cold feet at that, There's too much mus - tard where he's at, smothered now in Sau - er - kraut, 'I will take too long to dig him out.

Fi - do is a "hot dog" now. But now.
