Of all the Beau-ti-ful girls you see in Gay Pa-ree, there was a Ma-da-mo-iselle that did ap-pear to me,
While I was walk-ing in to a Res-tau-raunt one day, there I was goi-ng to eat but didn't know what to say,

"Bonjour" ma che-rie, you cer- tain-ly look good to me, is what she said to me up-on the Bon-le-ward.
Ma- da- moiselle come here, I think I will eat this here, but then she brought me out a lot of tun-ny stuff.

I failed to com-ree the lin-go of her Na-tive' land, She, said Pal Nes-ass-a-rie and waved her little hand.
Now come to me and lis-ten pret -ty ma da mo iselle, oh! this might be ve-ry good but I dont like it well,

Come on a-long with me, and you will see Gay Par-ee, al though we walkeda-long way this is all that I could say.
Give me some other stuff, of this Ive had en-ough, and all the talking that I done she thought that I was Rough.

CHORUS

Comme ça, comme ça. All I could say to her it was comme ça. Comme ça, comme ça.

And then she rolled her eyes up to the skies, Pa - pa, Ma - ma.

My brain's a-whirl a-bout the girl Ma-da-ma-oiselle your quite con-tra-ry.

Oh! la! la! Gee! you're some kid, but not like Ma-ry, sweet pa-pa, Com-ree,

Oui, oui. All I could say was comme ça ——— ça ———
