Says Dea-con John-son just sup-pose that mule was a-long..... the help his coun-try fight He said he want-ed to be sent to France right a-way 'cause he one I is to ride Them Boch-es take a no-tion to come ten thou-sand strong don't you know'd his Un-cle Sam was right They put him on a mule that pulled the can-nons a-round says see there aint no chance to hide I know I'd have a fight-in' chance to make my es-cape if this is where you ride Says he I'd rath-er do my fight-in' on the ground when we I was on the ground But with a mule I know I'd have to hes-i-tate tryin' to reach the oth-er side..... I wants a good fair chance...when we gets out in France... drag that mule a - round..... I craves to get a Hun..... al - so a chance to run.....

CHORUS

When I gets out in "No-Mans-Land"..... They'll soon find out that I'm no fool,..... I wants to fight for Un - cle Sam..... But not in pard-ner-ship with no mule } Sup - pose that mule should balk out on the fir - in' line. I know I'd have to leave him man-y miles be-hind just im-ag - ine if the cap-tain hol-lered "Gas" I could - nt stop to tie a mask on that Jack-ass } When hear they calls an av - i - at - or Man an "ACE" But if he flies near "Maud" they'll have to fill his place }

 I } Now
